TxP2P 14th Annual Conference

Session 3: 3:30 – 5:00 p.m., Friday, June 22nd, 2018

Session	Description	Speakers
3010 Advocacy	Using Your Journey to Make a Difference We all have a unique journey as we raise children with disabilities. Learning to share those experiences with others will help them understand what life is like raising a child with particular needs. We will discuss ways we can share our story to bring change. We will learn how to educate ourselves in order to have conversations with those who make the policies and develop the process used with our children. This session will empower you to be a stronger advocate for your child and others and will assist you in looking at the high and lows of your personal journey to strengthen your influence with others.	Barbara Granger
3090 Self-Determination & Self-Advocacy	You Can Impact Disability Policy in Texas! Come learn the legislative process in Texas and discuss the critical role of self-advocates and family members in driving progressive policies for people with disabilities. Participants will gain tools to effectively communicate with decision-makers about priority issues and get a review what happened last session and what is on the horizon.	Jolene Sanders

Session 4: 9:00 – 10:00 a.m., Saturday, June 23rd, 2018

Session	Description	Speakers
4010 Advocacy/ Autism	The State of Autism Services in Texas Families in Texas routinely struggle to access autism services that could provide critical supports and decrease lifetime costs for the individual and family. Jolene will discuss some of these barriers and how families can get involved in reshaping policies to ensure access to quality services.	Jolene Sanders
