Personal networks build a circle of caring volunteers around a person at risk of isolation. They promote planning and social opportunities in the present, assist with decision-making, and work to be sustainable after parents can no longer be available. Learn more about networks, how they benefit families and how the Txp2P Texas Networks Connections Program can help you start a network.

Thursday
September 16, 2021
from 1:30 to 3:00 pm

Click To register

Presented by:
Denise Sonleitner
Texas Network Connections
Lead Facilitator